PART B: SHARES AND SHAREHOLDERS

SHARES

7 Company's shares

At the date of this constitution the Company has 1,000 shares.

8 Board to issue shares

8.1 Every share in the Company must be held on behalf of the Crown by a Minister of the Crown.

8.2 Neither the Board nor any other person may issue any shares, or securities convertible into shares, or options to acquire shares, in the Company unless the issue (including the terms of the issue) is expressly authorised in writing by the shareholders.

8.3 Subject to clause 8.2, the Board may issue further shares that rank as to voting or distribution rights, or both, equally with or prior to any existing shares in the Company. Any such issue will not be treated as an action affecting the rights attached to the existing shares.

9 No statutory pre-emptive rights

Section 45 of the Act does not apply to the Company.

10 Board may make calls

The Board may make calls on any shareholder for any money that is unpaid on that shareholder's shares and not otherwise payable at a specified time or times under this constitution or the terms of issue of those shares or any contract for the issue of those shares. The First Schedule governs calls on shares.

11 Shares in lieu of dividends

The Board may not exercise the powers under section 54 of the Act except in accordance with a written authority to do so signed by the shareholders.

CALL ON SHARES

2. Shareholders must pay calls

Every shareholder on receiving written notice in accordance with clause 3 specifying the time or times and the place of payment must pay, in accordance with that notice, the amount called to be paid in respect of any shares that he or she holds. The Board may revoke or postpone a call, or require a call to be paid by instalments.

3. Period of notice for calls

The period of notice required for a call on shares shall be that prescribed in the terms of issue of the shares. Where no such period is specified in the terms of issue, the period of notice shall be such period as is agreed between the shareholders and the Board or, in the absence of agreement, 12 months.

A call is regarded as having been made at the time when the Board resolution authorising the call was passed.

5. Joint holders are jointly and severally liable

The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls for that share.

6. Unpaid calls will accrue interest

If an amount called is not paid in full at the time specified for payment, the person from whom the amount is due must pay the Company interest on the amount that remains unpaid at a rate determined by the Board and calculated from the time specified for payment until the day of actual payment. The Board may waive some or all of the payment of that interest.

7. Amounts payable under terms of issue treated as calls

Any amount that becomes payable on issue or at any specified date under this constitution or under the terms of issue of a share or under a contract for the issue of a share, will be regarded as being a call duly made and payable on the specified date. If the payment is not made, the relevant provisions of this constitution will apply as if the amount had become payable by virtue of a call made in accordance with this constitution.

8. Board may differentiate between holders as to calls

On the issue of shares, the Board may differentiate between the holders of shares as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

9. Board may accept payment in advance for calls

Where a shareholder is willing to advance some or all of the money unpaid and uncalled on any share or shares of that shareholder, the Board may accept the amount advanced on the Company's behalf. 5. Omission of notice does not invalidate meeting

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of meeting by, any person entitled to that notice, does not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

6. Notice of adjournment

- 6.1 If a meeting is adjourned for less than 30 days, no notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting need be given other than by announcement at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

PROXIES

25. Proxies permitted

A shareholder may exercise the right to vote by being present in person or represented by proxy.

26. Proxy to be treated as shareholder

A proxy for a shareholder is entitled to attend and be heard at a meeting of shareholders as if the proxy were the shareholder.

27. Appointment of proxy must be in writing and specify restrictions

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

32. Shareholder proposals by written notice

A shareholder may give written notice to the Board of a matter the shareholder proposes to raise for discussion or resolution at the next meeting of shareholders at which the shareholder is entitled to vote, and clause 9 of the First Schedule to the Act shall apply accordingly.

2. Notice to contain certain details

The notice of meeting must include the date, time and place of the meeting and the matters to be discussed.

3. Period of notice required to be given to directors

At least 5 days' notice of a meeting to the Board must be given to every director, except as set out in this clause. If a director, who is for the time being absent from his or her usual place of residence, supplies the Company with a facsimile number or address to which notices are to be sent during his or her absence, then notice must be given to that director. Otherwise notice need not be given to any director for the time being absent from his or her usual place of residence. However, if he or she has an alternate director, then notice must be given to that person. Where the chairperson or, in the chairperson's absence, any other director believes it is necessary to convene a meeting of the Board as a matter of urgency, shorter notice of the meeting of the Board may be given, so long as at least 24 hours' notice is given.

4. Notice to be sent to director's address

The notice of meeting must be sent to the address or facsimile number which the director provides to the Company for that purpose, but if an address or facsimile number is not provided, then to his or her last place of employment or residence or facsimile number known to the Company.

5. Directors may waive irregularities in notice

Any irregularity in the notice of a meeting is waived if all directors entitled to receive notice of the meeting attend the meeting without protest as to the irregularity, or if all directors entitled to receive notice of the meeting agree to the waiver.

MEETING AND QUORUM

6. Methods of holding meetings

A meeting of the Board may be held either:
