Unit 4 Text Types and Purposes: Write Informative/Explanatory Texts

- Read a Student Model/Write Informative/Explanatory Texts—pp. 102–105

Analyze a student model • Organize and draft an informative/explanatory essay

7LA.C.21

write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content

7LA.C.21.a

introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension

7LA.C.21.b

develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples

7LA.C.21.c

use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts

7LA.C.21.d

use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic

7LA.C.21.e

use documents to clarify details or support claims

7LA.C.21.f

establish and maintain a formal style

7LA.C.21.g

provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented

7LA.C.23

produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience

7LA.C.24

develop and strengthen writing as needed, with some guidance and support from peers and adults, by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed

7LA.C.25

use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources

7LA.C.29

write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (e.g., a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences

ELAGSE7W2

Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.

ELAGSE7W2.a

Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.

ELAGSE7W2.b

Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.

ELAGSE7W2.c

Use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.

ELAGSE7W2.d

Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.

ELAGSE7W2.e

Establish and maintain a formal style.

ELAGSE7W2.f

Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.

ELAGSE7W4

Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in Standards 1–3 above.)

ELAGSE7W5

With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed. (Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language Standards 1–3 up to and including grade 7.)

ELAGSE7W6

Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

ELAGSE7W10

Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- Language: Phrase and Clause Placement—p. 106
Guided Instruction/Guided Practice/Independent Practice

7LA.E.36.c

place phrases and clauses within a sentence, recognizing and correcting misplaced and dangling modifiers

ELAGSE7L1.c

Place phrases and clauses within a sentence, recognizing and correcting misplaced and dangling modifiers.*

Unit 8 Research to Build and Present Knowledge: Write Research Reports

- Read a Student Model/Write a Research Report—pp. 206–210
Analyze a student model • Use index cards • Organize and draft a research report

7LA.C.21

write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content

7LA.C.21.a

introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension

7LA.C.21.b

develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples

7LA.C.21.c

use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts

7LA.C.21.d

use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic

7LA.C.21.e

use documents to clarify details or support claims

7LA.C.21.f

establish and maintain a formal style

7LA.C.21.g

provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented

7LA.C.23

produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience

7LA.C.24

develop and strengthen writing as needed, with some guidance and support from peers and adults, by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed

7LA.C.25

use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources

7LA.C.26

conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions for further research and investigation

write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (e.g., a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences

ELAGSE7W2

Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.

ELAGSE7W2.a

Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.

ELAGSE7W2.b

Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.

ELAGSE7W2.c

Use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.

ELAGSE7W2.d

Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.

ELAGSE7W2.e

Establish and maintain a formal style.

ELAGSE7W2.f

Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.

ELAGSE7W4

Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in Standards 1–3 above.)

ELAGSE7W5

With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed. (Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language Standards 1–3 up to and including grade 7.)

ELAGSE7W6

Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

ELAGSE7W7

Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions for further research and investigation.

ELAGSE7W10

Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

ELAGSE7W1.e

Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.

ELAGSE7W4

Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in Standards 1-3 above.)

ELAGSE7W5

With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed. (Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language Standards 1-3 up to and including grade 7.)

ELAGSE7W6

Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

ELAGSE7W7

Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions for further research and investigation.

ELAGSE7W9

Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

ELAGSE7W9.b

Apply grade 7 Reading Standards to literary nonfiction (e.g. "Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims").

ELAGSE7W10

Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

ELAGSE7L2.a

Use a comma to separate coordinate adjectives (e.g., 'It was a fascinating, enjoyable movie' but not 'He wore an old[,] green shirt').

ELAGSE7L3.a

Choose language that expresses ideas precisely and concisely, recognizing and eliminating wordiness and redundancy.
